

From present indications it seems certain that a large percentage of the California grape crop will be converted into brandy, which will be denatured and shipped to Canada, where it will be converted into alcohol, for the manufacture of powder. There is now a war tax on denatured wine brandy. (Sacramento Bee.)

MISS THOMPSON'S WILL INJURED IN COLLISION

Testatrix Leaves One Thousand Dollars to Alexandria Hospital.
Requests to Relatives.

The will of Miss Ellen Thompson, dated September 13, 1915, has been filed for probate. The entire estate is devised to her sisters, Theresa and Grace Thompson, in trust to carry on her interest in the Thompson dairy, and at their discretion to convert the estate into cash. The following bequests are then to be made: Three thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars each to Arthur L. Thompson, a brother, and his wife, Rachel; $3,750 to a sister-in-law, Lizzie S. Thompson; $7,000 to George Thompson, a nephew; Theresa Thompson, a niece, $1,000; Virginia Thompson and Carl B. Thompson, each $500; Florence and Nellie Rider, each $1,000; John Thompson, $1,000; and Laura Bryant, $200.

The testatrix explains that she forgives her brother, Daniel S. D. Thompson, a debt of $3,500 due her, and gives him $250 in cash. One-half of a note for $5,000 due her by another brother, Egbert A. Thompson, and a sister, Grace, is forgiven the brother, and he is to have $1,250 in cash. The indebtedness of the sister on the note is also canceled.

A bequest of $1,000 is made to the Alexandria Hospital, and $450 to the Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky. The remaining estate is to be distributed among her nieces and nephews, with the exception of Theresa and Virginia Thompson and Carl Bassett.

Auto and Wagon Come Together at Queen and Washington Streets This Morning.

What at first was supposed to have been a serious accident occurred this morning at the intersection of Queen and Washington streets, when an automobile, owned by Herfurth Brothers and a wagon, owned by Joseph M. Armstrong, collided. The wagon was in charge of Eddie Owens, and he was thrown out and apparently injured, so seriously that he was hurried to his home where he received medical attention. Upon examination, no bones appeared to have been broken, but Owens was painfully injured. It will, however, take several days before his real injuries will become apparent.

The wagon and automobile were somewhat damaged by the accident.

WILL VISIT BATTLEFIELD

Henry Fairfax Will Extend Hospitalities at His Virginia Home.

Mr. Forbes, of Boston, Mass., formerly the Governor of the Philippine Island, has written Col. Mosby, that he with two of his brothers, will arrive in Washington the 20th, and wishes to visit the field of battle that Col. Mosby, had with his father Maj. Forbes, who commanded the California Battalion. This fight took place near Mount Zion Church, near Aldie, Loudoun county, Virginia.

The fight was near the home of Mr. Henry Fairfax. Mr. Fairfax has hospitalities of a Virginia home where he proposes to extend the hospitalities of a Virginia home. These gentlemen will gather at this home where they will meet other prominent individuals. The meeting will take place Thursday 21st.

SEASON OF FLORAL BEAUTIES

Just now is the season for the most beautiful flowers and as is well known Alexandria is one of the places where flowers are grown not only for the local market but also for Eastern cities. Prominent among the florist firms here is that of the Dunbarr Floral Company, which has built up a large business because of the beauty of its products. The store of this company is located at 725 King street with Thomas N. Dunbarr and Mrs. Dunbarr, in charge and the greenhouse, G. G. Wolt, manager and a partner of the firm, has the growing of the floral beauties under his direction. Mr. Wolt, has had many years of experience in the business and was for many years with Loose of this city, before he became interested in the Dunbarr company. Just at present the greenhouses are redolent with American beauties, the white and pink Killarneys, the Atlea, a new red rose sweet peas, violets and white chrysanthemums.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

Cards have been received here announcing the wedding in Washington Saturday night of Miss Emily Louise Elliott, formerly of this city and Mr. Harry Urmoston Badeau. Miss Elliott spent her girlhood days in this city and was very popular. She is a daughter of the late Henry Randall Elliott, of this city. Mr. Badeau is of Bridgeport, Conn., and a son of Mr. Charles G. Badeau, of Elizabeth, N. J. The marriage took place Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the apartment of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Randall Elliott brother and sister-in-law of the bride, at the Dresden, Washington.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, palms and autumn foliage, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Wingate of St. Margaret's Episcopal Church. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Dr. Elliott, wore a gown of white satin embroidered in pearls and trimmed with point lace. Her veil of rose point lace, an heirloom in her family, was worn by her Grandmother, Randall, who was Emily Monroe, of Washington. She carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Albert Smoot, of Alexandria was matron of honor and Miss Mary Daingerfield of Alexandria the maid of honor. They wore gowns of yellow chiffon over yellow roses.

Mr. Arthur C. Badeau, of Brooklyn, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

A small reception for the bridal party and the two families followed, after which the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip. They will make their future home in Bridgeport Conn.

Mrs. E. A. Gorman, G. T. Kipstein, Hugh McGuire, W. M. Smith, R. J. Yates and M. D. Delaney, of this city, have accepted an invitation to attend the annual meeting of the Medical Society of Virginia which will be held in Richmond, commencing next Monday.

The Current Topic Club, organized by Mrs. Hyde, under the auspices of the Free Kindergarten, will not meet this evening at Miss Mary Carlin's as it is postponed until next Monday evening, when the first talk will be given.

Alexander J. Wedderburn, connected with the Internal Revenue office in Richmond, arrived here today on business.

SOLDIERS OF THE CROSS.

When the Saviour of Manhood made his entry into Jerusalem we are told he was met by a multitude who sang "Hosanna to the Son of David: blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." Some hostile to the man of Galilee took exception. "Have ye not read," said he, "out of the mouths of babes and sucklings I have ordained praise."

The scene in the City of the Great King was suggested in our North American home, thousands of miles from the thrilling scene of nineteen hundred years ago, when one-fifth of the population of Alexandria formed a monster parade, yesterday afternoon. It was Sunday school rally. Old and young formed the pageant. Aged pilgrims, whose locks have been whitened by the snows of many winters were in the line, while innocent little ones toddled along filled with enthusiasm.

The scene caused many soliloquies. Had such an army of witnesses appeared in Armenia at the present day another slaughter of innocents would have disgraced history. While twelve nations are at war and the music of "Tis a Long Way to Tipperary," "The Watch of the Rhine," "The Marseillaise," etc., are sending chills down the backs of lovers of peace in Europe, the notes of "Nearer My God to Thee," "Onward Christian Soldiers," etc. were adding sanctity to the Sabbath in Alexandria—where all can worship the Creator under his own vine and fig tree.

In this busy age, when spiritual matters are those of secondary importance to so many, such scenes are an inspiration, and the army which paraded the streets yesterday as witnesses to the truth delivered silent sermons more effective than all human arguments.

The quotation the Saviour made in rebuking the straight-laced religious professors of His day is taken from the 8th Psalm and evidently refers to another and a more glorious age of the world—the Messianic Kingdom—when "the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young one shall lie down together, and the lion eat straw with the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

But some will doubtless say what does it all amount to? Well, let us see. Many years ago the late Dr. Meses Hoge, of Richmond, delivered a sermon in the Second Presbyterian Church of Alexandria. During his sermon he referred to the power of children in the church. He said a rich and fashionably-dressed woman of Richmond was a regular attendant at his church for years. Many attempts had been made to induce her to become a member of the church, but all had failed. One night at a meeting of the session this woman unexpectedly appeared and asked to be admitted to membership. Upon being asked how she had so suddenly become interested in spiritual affairs, she replied, "It was the example of a little girl I saw join the church recently." The child's back was to the woman; the former had not uttered a word, but her silent sermon was more effective than Dr. Hoge's eloquence.

In Trinity M. E. Church, in this city a long time ago a Jewish rabbi, who had been converted to Christianity delivered an interesting and highly spiritual sermon, during which he said he had been turned to Christian, little by the expressions of faith by a little girl who had her back to him and was talking to her mother.

An old man in Alexandria many years ago, one of the many who look upon the spiritual life as a myth and a matter to amuse women and children, met an acquaintance in the street. The interview was brief. Upon being asked concerning his health, etc., the aged man said: "My children are leading me to the feet of Christ." He had not set them the proper example, and was realizing the fact that his offspring were being used to snatch him from the burning.

Were children yesterday sowing seed for a great harvest? Let us wait with patience and hope for the best.

The address of John Garland Pollard, Attorney-General of Virginia in the First Baptist Church, was the last but not by any means the least interesting feature of the afternoon. Mr. Pollard uttered some pleasant remarks during his address, but at times was serious and practical. He urged upon his hearers the importance of making large aims, and said, if we enter into small undertakings the fruit would be correspondingly small. In this connection it may be stated that the evangelization of the world through the agency of the Sunday schools was the dominating idea expressed by speakers at the dinner given by the World's Sunday School Association to Bishop Joseph C. Hart, of Funchal, Madeira; Dr. John R. Mott and the Rev. S. M. Zwemer, of Cairo, Egypt, in New York last week.

Dr. Mott said that the work of evangelizing the world would begin after the war and that the opportunities for Christian advancement then would be greater than ever before. Bishop Hartzell, said that embraced in the association were 24,500 Sunday schools, with 62,000 officers, and teachers and 27,000,000 pupils. Of this number more than one-half, he said were in the United States and Canada.

WAR TO THE KNIFE

The following appears in the Russian newspaper, Novoye Vremya: "In this war sentiment ought to be left to one side. One ought not to bother about breaches of neutrality. There is no neutrality in this war. The rallying cry is 'An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth.' If Germany violated Belgium the entente does well in violating Greece. If Greece should oppose us we would have to force a passage."

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Italians have taken Pegasus, an important advanced position of the Riva defenses in Trentino, according to an official communication issued yesterday in Rome.

The council of ministers, presided over by President Poincaré, of France announced at noon yesterday that a state of war existed between France and Bulgaria, dating from 6 a. m. October 16.

Prescott Leasure, of Oldtown, Md., aged 32 years, a Baltimore and Ohio car inspector, died yesterday following an accident in the eastbound yard. He was crushed between shifting cars.

Four workmen were instantly killed and four injured in a gas explosion in the new by-product plant of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company at Fairfield, near Birmingham last night.

Sixteen persons are believed to have lost their lives when a passenger car of a Union Pacific motor train plunged through a bridge near Randolph, Kans., yesterday and were drowned.

James Miller, of Cumberland Md., aged 19 years, died yesterday following injuries received early in the day while attempting to board a Baltimore and Ohio train at Okonoko, W. Va.

The Herald of Madrid, states that at a council held Saturday the ministry decided to resign. Premier Dato was directed to inform King Alfonso of the decision of the cabinet on his return from San Sebastian, where he had gone to consult physicians, the newspapers adds.

Rumors that peace tentatives have been made between Berlin and London are again current in Berlin, according to a London Times correspondent, but the Times in an editorial characterizes the idea that Great Britain is in a temper to listen to any peace talk as "too grotesque for serious refutation."

While her mother was searching the neighborhood for her yesterday three year old Josephine Dinelsky, of Philadelphia, lay crushed to death under a pile of bricks which fell on her when a stable wall collapsed at Penberton street near Front. The skull of the girl was crushed and both legs were broken by the mass of bricks.

Two men were killed and two injured yesterday when the automobile in which they were riding collided head-on with a street car in Cleveland, O. The dead are Dr. W. O. Coffey and Michael Zelenka, a collector, John W. Reitz, an automobile repairer, and William Flannery were cut and bruised.

After shooting Harry Best with a shotgun, following a row in Parkburg, W. Va., John Flynn gave himself up, and a murder charge has been lodged against him, as Best died at a hospital soon after being taken there. During an altercation Best had knocked Flynn down. Flynn thereupon went home for his shotgun and used it with result, stated.

Miss Lucille Davis, 18 years old, one of those seriously burned Saturday at Atlanta Georgia, in a fire in the office of the Mutual Film Corporation, died yesterday bringing the death list up to three. One young woman was burned to death in the building and another died shortly after being taken to a hospital.

How many of us preachers there are who are willing to play the fool in public in order to draw a crowd! said the Rev. Dr. Charles F. Aked, in New York yesterday. He preached in the Fifth Avenue Baptist (known as the Rockefeller Church) for the first time in several years. To do inferior work for money, he said, is the chief temptation to us all, and to yield to it is to blaspheme.

The military commander in the mark of Brandenburg has fixed the maximum price of butter at 2 marks, 80 pfennigs (approximately 70 cents) a pound. The price had reached 3 marks, 80 cents and was still rising. It is announced that an order is about to be issued forbidding the use of milk in Prussia for baking, manufacturing chocolate and candy and other similar purposes, and forbidding the sale of cream.

Mrs. Josephine Bielmoeki, aged 49, of Wilmington, Del., was ground to death under the wheel of a Philadelphia & Reading shifting engine last week. The woman had been in a pit at that point, picking coal for the noon cooking from ashes, and had started to climb out. She was caught between the ties of the trestle as her body hung suspended halfway across the rails, and she was cut in half before the engineer or crew knew of her presence on the tracks.

"Great Britain needs 3,000,000 more men by spring." This declaration was made yesterday in London by Brig. Gen. Sir Eric Swayne, director of recruiting in the northern command, in a speech at Hull. Gen. Sway estimated that Germany still has between 9,000,000 and 10,000,000 men from the ages of 18 to 45, and therefore, it was useless to talk about wearing out Germany. In the spring, said he, Germany would lose more men than the allies, which would balance the numbers of the allies and central powers, but if Great Britain should raise 3,000,000 additional, Germany probably would recognize that it would be fruitless to continue.

A Paris paper, gives an account of how Gen. Joffre, commander in chief of the French forces, directed the operations during the battle in the Champagne region. Taking a post close to the front, in an innkeeper's kitchen, where a telephone had been installed, Gen. Joffre, bending over a large scale map, listened to officers at the telephone, at intervals giving orders in a basolutely calm voice. In this position Gen. Joffre remained more than 22 hours—from 9 o'clock in the morning until 7:30 the next morning—neither eating nor drinking during the whole time. At the end of that period, after marking certain places on the map, he put down his pencil and said, "It is over; let us go take a bite."

FRANCO-BRITISH OFFENSIVE

Strength of Great Drive Launched Against Germans.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—The following secret order was found on a French staff officer. It shows the strength of the great Franco-British offensive recently launched against the Germans:

"The under-mentioned forces will participate: Thirty-five divisions of Gen. De Castelnau's army, eighteen divisions of Gen. Foch's army, thirteen English divisions, fifteen divisions of cavalry, including five divisions of English, in addition to twelve infantry divisions and the Belgian army. Thus three-quarters of the French army will be supported by 2,000 heavy guns and 3,000 field guns, and ammunition in greater quantity than since the beginning of the war. All provision has been made for certain success."

(Signed) "JOFFRE."

VIRGINIA NEWS

It is said in Richmond that Richard Evelyn Byrd will be a candidate for Attorney-General.

Hundreds of pounds of chestnuts are going by parcels post this fall from the mountain sections of Virginia. The crop is an unusually heavy one.

C. Fitzhugh Slade, Jr., 28 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Slade, of Falls Church, was adjudged insane Friday by a lunacy court and taken to the Fairfax jail. He will be sent to the State Asylum for the Insane at Staunton.

Wiley H. Wooten, a well-known citizen, who was visiting the old Lightfoot copper mine at Bumpass Bridge Saturday, was precipitated to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of forty-five feet, and was so terribly injured that he died.

C. R. Maynard of Newport News, is dead, and his brother, Claude B. Maynard, is at the point of death, as a result of an accident late Saturday night when a motorcycle on which they were riding crashed into a telephone pole.

A bald eagle, measuring 6 feet and 6 inches across the wings, was shot and killed Saturday by John Lewis, a farmer near Winchester, after a hard battle. Lewis came upon the eagle unexpectedly in his cornfield and found the bird endeavoring to get away with a dog that had been shot. The eagle attacked Lewis and a furious fight ensued. Lewis ran to the house for his shotgun and succeeded in killing the big bird before it got away with the dead dog.

In the Supreme Court of the United States today Attorney-General Pollard moved to dismiss the suit of the Commonwealth of Virginia against J. P. Morgan, of New York, brought to secure the return of the Martha Washington will, immediately following the action of the court Mr. Pollard, under instructions from Governor Stuart, will deliver the historic document to F. W. Richardson, clerk of Fairfax County, to be placed in the vault of the Fairfax County Courthouse, from which it was taken by Union soldiers in 1862.

There is no conclusive evidence as to the whereabouts of the six warrant officers of the interned German cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm have come to light. It is believed, however, that if they are still at sea in the yawl, in which they are supposed to have made their escape from Norfolk, they will eventually be reported through identification of the vessel. The yawl is named the Eclipse. The coast guard cutter Onondaga went to sea today to join in the search for the missing power boat Eclipse, on which the six warrant officers from the interned German cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm are believed to have gone to sea. Reports from headquarters of the Coast Guard Service say every cutter along the Atlantic Coast has been instructed to search for the missing boat.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Alexandria Citizens Show a Way.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what an Alexandria citizen says:

William H. Beach, 417 S. Lee St. Alexandria, says: "My back pained me so badly that I could hardly get about. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and during the night I had to get up every little while. I felt so sore and stiff in the morning that I could hardly get out of bed. I was tired and languid and had no ambition to do anything. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at W. F. Creighton and Son's Drug Store and the first few doses gave me relief. I used about four boxes and they put my kidneys in good condition. My back never aches now and I feel first-class in every way."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Beach had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SCHOLARS PARADE

four spires, necessary, viz. aspire, inspire, perspire and expire.

We should plan great things, we had a great parade because we planned for one. If we had arranged for three hundred, we would doubtless have had two hundred. Aspire for great plans, and high standards. Those that plan for small things have small results.

Inspiration. Without this gift we can do nothing, and we must be inspired with desire to serve our fellow men and advance his cause.

Perspiration means work. We cannot have a great school without an immense amount of labor. A one cent power, constantly at work can do more than a forty horsepower standing still.

Expire. We are to kill off anything that is detrimental to the school, such as long prayers, etc.

The girls were addressed by Mrs. Frank T. Israel, State superintendent of the secondary division, of Fairfax, Va., at the M. E. Church South, She was introduced by J. Frank Myers, and W. W. Millan, former president of District of Columbia Sunday school Association, spoke to the boys at Trinity M. E. Church. He was introduced by Charles E. Pierpoint.

Officers of the local association are: John W. Herndon, president; Charles E. Pierpoint, vice president; Harry W. Wade, secretary-treasurer; division superintendents, Miss Bessie Elliott, elementary; Miss Helen N. Cummings, secondary; Miss Mary Williamson, adult Bible; Mrs. William Campbell, home department, and Mrs. William Rogers, teacher training.

Mary Jane Carr, IN CHANCERY

Edward J. Carr, Upon the written application of the complainant, made and filed in accordance with the statutes, together with the affidavit of the defendant's non-residence, the said affidavit stating the last known address of the said defendant, and it appearing that the defendant is not a resident of the City of Alexandria, State of Virginia, and not within the jurisdiction of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, the Court does on this 14th day of October, 1915, enter the following order of publication against the said defendant:

MEMO: The object of this suit is to obtain a divorce a mensa et thoro from the defendant, Edward J. Carr, on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment, without lawful cause or excuse; and upon the passage of the statutory period to merge the same into an absolute divorce; and that the complainant, Mary J. Carr, be given the custody of her minor children Mildred Virginia Carr, and Michael Jewel Carr, and that she be decreed such further and other relief as to equity is right.

It is further ordered that the defendant do appear within fifteen days after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect his interests in this suit; that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper printed and published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy of the said order of publication be posted at the front door of the court house on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered and that a copy of the same mailed to the last known address of the defendant, at Baltimore, Maryland, General Delivery, Street address unknown, by the Clerk of this Court, by registered mail.

James Kessner, Complainant,

Nina Kessner, Defendant.

Upon the application in writing of complainant stating specifically the last known post office address or place of abode of the defendant, and it appearing to the Court that process has been issued and returned by the Sergeant of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, showing the defendant not being found within the jurisdiction of this Court, the Court on this 27th day of September, 1915, doth grant the following order of publication: The object of this suit is to obtain a divorce a vinculo matrimonii for the complainant, James Kessner, from the defendant, Nina Kessner, on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years, and for such other, further and general relief as the case may require or to equity may seem meet; and an affidavit having been filed that the defendant, Nina Kessner, is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that she do appear within fifteen days after due publication of said order of publication and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered; and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of the Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant, Nina Kessner, at 1137 Third Avenue, New York, New York, her last known post office address or place of abode.

To Avoid Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means no hair.

Get, at any drug store, a bottle of Zemo, 25c or 50c, and use it as directed. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is sure and safe, stops itching scalp, and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use is Zemo, for it is pure and also inexpensive.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Proposed amendments to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1914, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 46, Article IV, of the Constitution.

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto): That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section forty-six of article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly, after the first under this Constitution, shall continue longer than sixty days; but with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Except for the first session held under this Constitution, members shall be allowed a salary for not exceeding sixty days at any regular session, and for not exceeding thirty days at any extra session. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place nor for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates, and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly shall continue longer than ninety days, except that with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place, nor for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 50 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment, and certifying the same to the next General Assembly.

1. Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto): That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section fifty of article four of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section fifty, article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house, to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated, prior to its passage therein;

(c) Read at length on three different calendar days in each house; and unless,

(d) A ye and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division (d) of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house be concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported; provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-division (b) and (c) of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency, by a vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house taken by the ye and nays, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, provided further, that no bill which creates or establishes a new office, or which creates, continues, or revives a debt or charge, or makes, continues, or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues, or revives a tax, shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members elected to each house, the vote to be by the ye and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal. Every law imposing, continuing, or reviving a tax shall specifically state such tax, and no law shall be construed as so stating such tax which requires a reference to any other law or any other tax. The presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house over which he presides, sign every bill which has been passed by both houses and duly enrolled. Immediately before this is done, all other business being suspended, the title of the bill shall be publicly read. The fact of the signing shall be entered on the journal.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated prior to its passage therein;

(c) Read by title on three different calendar days in each house, and read at length at least once in each house; and unless,

(d) A ye and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division (d) of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house be concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported; provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-divisions "d" and "e" of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency, by a vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house taken by the ye and nays, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal; and provided further, that no bill which creates or establishes a new office, or which creates, continues, or revives a debt or charge, or makes, continues, or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues, or revives a tax, shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members
